CHARACTER HISTORY

Orphaned at a young age, Ma'keal was raised in the Church of Sulis. He always had problems with authority and it didn't take long for his temper to land him in trouble. Rather than punish the rage out of him, which was likely to backfire, the priests taught him to temper his rage into a weapon. He was inducted into small sect sworn to protect the church, uphold the values of Sulis, the rule of law, and the light. Ma'keal failed in his sacred duty, resulting in his church and the orphanage he was raised in being burned to the ground. Shamed and alone, Ma'keal became a paladin of vengeance, his new oath to find and punish those responsible. His quest has taken him all over the realm of Ur, eventually leading him to Taldora where his pursuit draws to an end, that is if the subjects of his query don't manage to escape again.
